

The Great Mystery Show Quotes

“When geometric diagrams and digits
Are no longer the keys to living things,
When people who go about singing or kissing
Know deeper things than the great scholars,
When society is returned once more
To unimprisoned life, and to the universe,
And when light and darkness mate
Once more and make something entirely transparent,
And people see in poems and fairytales
The true history of the world,
Then our entire twisted nature will turn
And run when a single secret word is spoken.”

- Novalis (1772 - 1801)

Translated by Robert Bly

“You develop an instant global consciousness, a people orientation, an intense dissatisfaction with the state of the world, and a compulsion to do something about it. From out there on the moon, international politics look so petty. You want to grab a politician by the scruff of the neck and drag him a quarter of a million miles out and say, “Look at that you son of a bitch.”

- Apollo 14 Astronaut, Edgar Mitchell

“Mystery creates wonder and wonder is the basis of man’s desire to understand.”

- Neil Armstrong

“Life is a mystery to be lived, not a problem to be solved.” - Søren Kierkegaard

“She loved mysteries so much she became one.” - John Green

“When you have solved all the mysteries of life you long for death, for it is but another mystery of life.” - Khalil Gibran

“All our knowledge has its origins in our perceptions” – Leonardo da Vinci

“The noblest pleasure is the joy of understanding.” – Leonardo da Vinci

The Great Mystery Show

The title 'The Great Mystery Show' is written in a large, black, gothic-style font. The word 'The' is small and positioned above 'Great'. 'Mystery' is the largest word, and 'Show' is smaller and positioned below 'y'. The text is set against a solid red background. Three black cats with glowing green eyes are integrated into the design: one is on the left, one is at the top right, and one is on the right side. A black crown is positioned above the 'y' in 'Mystery'. The letters 'M' and 'y' have long, decorative flourishes that extend upwards and downwards.
